

Official Voter Guide

Arizona District 4 House

This is our official 2022 voter guide for your upcoming competitive state legislative race. We had researchers dig through local candidates' backgrounds, statements, and votes on key legislative issues, then provide that information to voters like you—so you can make an informed choice on Election Day.

Candidates	Education	Women's Health	Elections
 Laura Terech (D)	As a former educator, Laura Terech is dedicated to ending the teacher shortage so our children can compete. She will make sure local school boards and parents determine the curriculum and not extreme politicians. Sources: Laura for AZ	Laura Terech is proudly pro-choice and believes that a woman's healthcare decisions should be made between her and her doctor – not by politicians. She will always fight to protect access to contraception and reproductive health. Sources: Twitter @lauraforAZ	Laura Terech believes elections should be free, fair and easy to participate in. We have an excellent vote-by-mail system in Arizona with convenient drop boxes that should not be removed. Laura will always stand up for the rights of voters. Sources: Laura for AZ
 Matt Gress (R)	Matt Gress supports taking money out of public schools when Arizona schools are already strapped. He is supported by politicians that have banned books. This could lead to schools removing books covering slavery and the Holocaust over the objections of local parents and school boards. Sources: Arizona Ed News, 1/4/17; National Institute On Money In State Politics, accessed 8/19/22; HB 2439, signed 4/29/22; Arizona Sun Times via the Tennessee Star, 4/20/22	Matt Gress says he is "proudly pro-life," which means he would ban abortions and potentially jail women. Sources: Matt Gress for Arizona House, accessed 2/2/22; Matt Gress LinkedIn, accessed 3/11/22; SB 1164, signed 3/30/22; NPR, 3/24/22	Matt Gress supports efforts to restrict the right to vote, making voting harder for Arizonans. His supporters even backed the audit that spent taxpayer dollars just to prove Biden won Arizona. Sources: Twitter, 8/4/22; New York Times, 8/15/22

Early voting begins on Monday, October 24th and runs to Friday, November 4th. If you vote by mail, you must return your ballot by Tuesday, November 8th. Election Day is Tuesday, November 8th.
