

Official Voter Guide

Georgia House District 154

This is our official 2022 voter guide for your upcoming competitive state legislative race. We had researchers dig through local candidates' backgrounds, statements, and votes on key legislative issues, then provide that information to voters like you—so you can make an informed choice on Election Day.

Candidates	Elections	Education	Economy
 John Hayes (D)	John Hayes believes that every eligible voter in Georgia should have the right to express their voice by voting without barriers. He will oppose efforts to curtail the right to vote. Source: https://electjohnhayes.com/	John Hayes believes that investing in our children's well-being is the most important thing we can do as parents and leaders in our community. Every child deserves a properly funded education to prepare them for success. Source: https://electjohnhayes.com/	John Hayes will work to promote entrepreneurship, small business development, and job training, as well as expand Ready to Work programs. He knows that supporting the middle class is how we grow Georgia's economy. Source: https://electjohnhayes.com/
 Gerald Greene (R)	Gerald Greene voted for a bill that made voting more difficult for Georgians. He supported a bill that would limit dropboxes and early voting. He also helped manipulate our election system to rig elections by helping redraw district lines to benefit Republicans. Source: SB 202, 3/25/21; Atlanta Journal Constitution, 5/6/21; NPR, 5/23/22	Gerald Greene voted for a bill that cut funding available for our public schools. He even voted to censor what teachers could cover regarding topics like slavery and civil rights, which would hurt students academically and make it harder for them to compete for college admission against students from other states. Source: HB 217, 3/29/18; Georgia Association of Educators, Highlights of the 2018 Legislative Session, HB 1084, 4/4/22; Education Week, 3/14/2:	Georgia families are getting hammered by inflation, but Gerald Greene voted for a tax plan that gave almost all of its benefits to special interests and a handful of millionaires and billionaires. Source: Atlanta Journal-Constitution, 3/10/22; HB 1437, 4/4/22; Georgia Budget and Policy Institute, 4/1/22

Georgia early voting begins on Monday, October 17th and runs through Friday, November 4th. Election Day is Tuesday, November 8th.

Visit MyVoterInformation.org for more information on early vote, vote-by-mail, and Election Day voting. And be sure to vote!