

Official Voter Guide

Pennsylvania House District 160

This is our official 2022 voter guide for your upcoming competitive state legislative race. We had researchers dig through local candidates' backgrounds, statements, and votes on key legislative issues, then provide that information to voters like you—so you can make an informed choice on Election Day.

Candidates	Education	Women's Health	Cost of Living
 Catherine Spahr (D)	Cathy Spahr will fight for full funding for our schools. She knows every parent wants the best possible education for their child. Source: https://spahr4pa.com/en/families	Cathy Spahr believes that women should be able to make their own healthcare decisions without interference. With Roe v. Wade now overturned, we need leaders who will fight extreme attempts to ban abortion even in cases of rape and incest or when a woman's life or health is at risk. Source: https://spahr4pa.com/en/healthcare	Cathy Spahr will fight to lower prescription drug costs and make healthcare affordable and accessible. Source: https://spahr4pa.com/en/healthcare
 Wendell Williams (R)	Craig Williams has taken tens of thousands of dollars from a charter and private school interest group. At the same time, he has voted to drain $9 million in taxpayer dollars from local public schools, which would force local taxpayers to make up the difference with higher property taxes. Source: Pennsylvania Department of State, Campaign Finance Online Reporting System, Friends of Craig Williams, 10/21/20; Pennsylvania General Assembly, HB1642, 10/5/21	Craig Williams has already voted to ban abortion, and he caucuses with far-right leaders in the State House who are pushing for a constitutional amendment to outlaw abortion in Pennsylvania in all cases, including when a woman's life is at risk. Source: Pennsylvania General Assembly, HB1500, 6/8/21; WHHY, 7/9/22	Craig Williams has fought for electricity rate increases at an energy company while company executives received tens of millions in bonuses and didn't disclose it in official documents. Source: Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, Docket No. R-2015-2468981, 3/25/15; Crain's Chicago Business via Wayback Machine, 2/7/20

Pennsylvania counties may make absentee and mail-in ballot applications available to voters up to 50 days before Election Day. Absentee and mail-in ballots may be dropped off in county offices until 8pm on Election Day.

Visit MyVoterInformation.org for more information on early vote, vote-by-mail, and Election Day voting. And be sure to vote!