My Voter Information researches local candidates' backgrounds, statements, and votes on key legislative issues and then provides that information to voters like you—so you can make an informed choice on Election Day. Below is information about your local candidates and their positions on important issues.

Issue	Katherine Parker (R)	Eddie Morales (D)
Education	Katherine Parker is supported by an organization that wants to ban books that might make some students uncomfortable, such as those covering American slavery, the Civil Rights Movement, and the Holocaust. Source: Transparency USA, accessed 8/2/22;Texas Observer, 1/14/22	Eddie Morales will work toward increasing the state's share of public education expenses so that we can pay less in property taxes. He passed a "13th check" for retired teachers to help them pay for the rising cost of goods. Morales is also working to expand the technical and job training programs available in our public high schools. Source: Morales for Texas, accessed 8/3/22;Del Rio and Eagle Pass News Leader, 9/1/21
Women's Health	Katherine Parker opposes abortion in all cases, including rape, incest, and even when the woman's life is at risk. She believes that restricting access to reproductive health care should be the government's number one priority. Source: Katherine Parker for Texas, accessed 8/2/22	Eddie Morales will work to increase funding for women's health care and provide lower-income women with increased access to cancer screenings and mammograms. Source: Morales For Texas, accessed 8/12/22
Infrastructure	Katherine Parker's campaign is funded by the same oil and gas executive who was appointed to the ERCOT board after he gave millions to Texas politicians. ERCOT has still not fixed the state power grid, while the average energy bill is 70% higher and Texans brace for rolling summer blackouts or another winter freeze. Source: Transparency USA, accessed 8/2/22;Houston Chronicle, 5/14/22;Houston Chronicle, 6/3/22	Eddie Morales is delivering real results for our communities, building new infrastructure in south and west Texas. In Austin, Morales secured more than $15 million for new facilities at the Presidio International Bridge. He authored a new law to expand broadband internet access for our rural communities, and he is working to expand resources for Sul Ross campuses in Alpine, Eagle Pass, and Del Rio. Source: Rep.
