

Official Voter Guide

Texas House District 118

This is our official 2022 voter guide for your upcoming competitive state legislative race. We had researchers dig through local candidates' backgrounds, statements, and votes on key legislative issues, then provide that information to voters like you—so you can make an informed choice on Election Day.

Candidates	Education	Gun Safety	Women's Health
 Frank Ramirez (D)	Frank Ramirez is a proud product of San Antonio neighborhood schools, he will fight to fully fund our public education system. This means better teacher pay so we can recruit and retain the best and brightest young people into our classrooms, smaller class sizes, and the most up-to-date textbooks and technology to prepare our kids for the future. Source: Frank for Texas, accessed 8/3/22	Frank Ramirez is demanding accountability after tragedies like the shooting in Uvalde. Ramirez supports increased school security, and he will push for policies such as universal background checks to keep guns out of the hands of dangerous criminals. Source: FrankForTexas on Facebook, 5/28/22; San Antonio Express News, 9/22/21	Frank Ramirez wants to restore Roe v. Wade and will fight extremists who want to outlaw birth control. Source: FrankForTexas on Twitter, 8/2/22
 John Lujan (R)	John Lujan supports taking money from our local public schools and sending it to unaccountable private schools. Lujan is supported by an organization that wants to ban books that might make some students uncomfortable, such as those covering American slavery, the Civil Rights Movement, and the Holocaust. Source: San Antonio Express News, 1/19/16; Public School Review, 9/19/19	John Lujan supports allowing almost anyone to carry a handgun in public without safety training or a background check. Source: San Antonio Express News, 9/22/21	John Lujan stands with Republicans who support criminalizing all abortions, even in cases of rape, incest, and when the health of the mother is at risk. Lujan has failed to speak out as his political allies discuss banning birth control. Source: San Antonio Express News, Editorial, 9/22/21
