

HOUSE DISTRICT 74

In your district, where do the candidates stand on important issues?

Your Candidates

Katherine Parker (R)

Eddie Morales (D)

ISSUE 1: EDUCATION

Do the candidates support our public schools?

Katherine Parker (R)

?

Parker has not taken clear positions on education but is notably supported by an organization that wants to ban books, such as those covering American slavery, the Civil Rights Movement, and the Holocaust.

Source: Transparency USA, accessed 8/2/22; Texas Observer, 1/14/22

Eddie Morales (D)

YES

Morales wants to increasing the state's share of public education expenses so that we can pay less in property taxes. Morales also advocates expanding technical and job training programs.

Source: Morales for Texas, accessed 8/3/22; Del Rio and Eagle Pass News Leader, 9/1/21

ISSUE 2: WOMEN'S HEALTH

Do the candidates support access to women's healthcare?

Katherine Parker (R)

NO

Parker opposes abortion in all cases, including rape, incest, and when the woman's life is at risk.

Source: Katherine Parker for Texas, accessed 8/2/22

Eddie Morales (D)

YES

Morales says he will work to increase funding for women's health care and provide lower-income women with increased access to cancer screenings and mammograms.

Source: Morales For Texas, accessed 8/12/22:

ISSUE 3: INFRASTRUCTURE

Do the candidates support efforts to invest in our infrastructure?

Katherine Parker (R)

?

Parker has not taken a clear position, but her campaign is notably funded by an ERCOT board member. ERCOT has still not fixed the state power grid, while the average energy bill is 70% higher and Texans brace for summer blackouts or another winter freeze.

Source: Transparency USA, accessed 8/2/22; Houston Chronicle, 5/14/22; Houston Chronicle, 6/3/22

Eddie Morales (D)

YES

Morales secured more than $15 million for new facilities at the Presidio International Bridge. He authored a new law to expand broadband Internet access to rural communities.

Source: Rep. Morales, press release, 10/20/21; Rep Morales, press release, 4/9/21