

Pennsylvania

Is for Voters

[First Name] [Last Name]
[Street Address]
[City], [State] [Zip]

Dear [First Name],

A special election for state legislature will be held on Tuesday, May 16th.

We have checked public records with the Pennsylvania Department of State to determine your voter grade (how often you vote) and the average in your community.

- The average voting grade in your neighborhood is B.
- Your score is [voter grade]. Make sure to vote this year to keep it up.

Make sure you vote on or before Tuesday May 16th and IMPROVE YOUR VOTING SCORE.

Your Voting Record for:

[First Name] [Middle Name] [Last Name] [Suffix]

[Voted 2016]

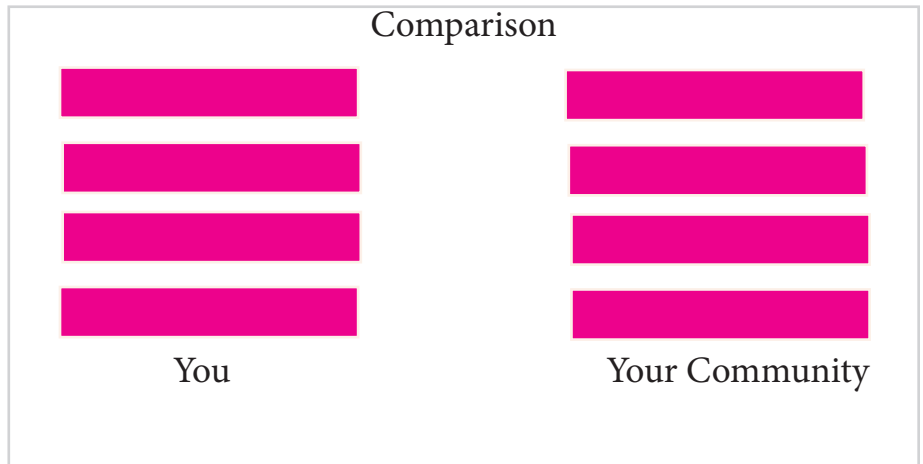

[Voted 2018]

[Voted 2020]

[Voted 2022]

Your voting grade is: [voter grade]

Remember, who you vote for is private, but whether or not you vote is a matter of public record.

You may be contacted after the election and asked about your experience.

To find your polling location, visit vote.pa.gov. Our democracy works best when everyone votes—including you.

Paid for by Forward Majority Action Pennsylvania.